INDEX TO VOL. LXIX

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ACLAND (Sir Thomas Dyke), 'Towards Educational Righteousness': a Reply to Dr. Clifford, 169–174
Acton (Lord) on the French Revolution, 847–857
Air-Craft in Co-operation with Cavalry, 798–810
Alien immigrants, registration and medical examination, 210–216
American commercial reciprocity with Canada, 381–401, 961–992
Anderson (Sir Robert), The Problem of the Criminal Alien, 217–224
Anglo-German Understanding, The Need for an, 82–93
Aquinas, St. Thomas, The 'Modernism' of, 72–81
Arbitration Courts and the military spirit, 591–606
Art and insanity, 270–281
Ashanti, A white woman's experiences in, 150–159
Augustan and pre-Augustan Latin poetry, 692–703
Aveling (Rev. Francis), The 'Modernism' of St. Thomas Aquinas, 72–81
Austrian appreciation of the English character, 1006–1021

BANNERMAN-PHILLIPS (Major H.), Air-Craft in Co-operation with Cavalry, 798–810
Battine (Captain Cecil), Invasion and the Alternative: Lord Haldane's Administration criticised, 754–772
Battleships of Great Britain and of other Powers, 607–613
Baudelaire, Charles, et L'Esthétique de la Décadence, 527–544
Beaumont (Madame de) and Chateaubriand, 645–651
Beaunier (André), Charles Baudelaire et L'Esthétique de la Décadence, 527–544
Beeching (Rev. Canon), The Revision of the Prayer Book, 282–295; The Ornaments Rubric: a Reply to Mr. Lathbury, 1134–1140
Beeching (Canon) and the Ornaments Rubric, 881–890
Beet-sugar industry in England, 928–937
Bell-ringing and carillon-playing, 123–132
Belloc (Hilaire), Lord Acton on the French Revolution, 847–857
Bible, English versions of the, 652–665
Billing (Noel Pemberton), 'Confusion Worse Confounded,' 1157–1162
Blake (Sir Henry A.), The Demand for Home Rule: a Suggested Solution, 369–380
Bosanquet (Mrs. Bernard), A Vested Interest, 913–919
Boyd (Eleanor M.), A Land Venture, 175–178
Brassey (Lord), The Navy Estimates, 607–613
Britain and her Offspring, 920–927
British administration in Egypt criticised, 1022–1035
British Army, The, and conscription, 133–149
British Colonies and constitutional reform, 920–927
British Constitution, Charles James Fox on the, 262–263
British Democracy and Indian Government, 189–209
British Fleet, Territorials, and Imperial Defence, 545–559
British India, its relations with the Home Government, 189–209
Butler, General Sir William, The Writings and Opinions of, 314–328
Buxton (Noel), Young Turkey after Two Years, 417–432

CANADA and American Reciprocity Agreement, 381–401, 961–992

CAN

Canadian Autonomy and American Reciprocity, 961–992
Canvassing, Humorous side of, 666–673
Carillon Music, 123–132
Carnegie (Andrew), Britain and her Offspring, 920–927
Cassandra on 'Votes for Women,' 487–498
Catholicism, Aquinas, and Modernism, 72–81
Cavalry, Air-Craft in Co-operation with, 798–810
Censor, The—and other Tales, 460–459
Charing Cross and King Edward VII. memorial bridge, 94–107
Chateaubriand, Some Notes on, 636–651, 1054–1072
Children's physique and working-class mothers, 108–122
Chirol (Valentine) on 'Indian Unrest,' 189–209
Christianity and Chateaubriand, 636–651
Church of England liturgical revision and clergy discipline, 282–295, 881–890, 1134–1140
Church of England, The Position of the Laity in the, 433–447
Churchill (Mr. Winston) and treatment of juvenile offenders and habitual criminals, 58–71
Clark (Prof. E. C.), The Duty of the Lords, 811–817
Clayton (Major Sir Edward), The Home Secretary and Prison Reform, 58–71
Clergy and laity, and parish councils, 433–447
Clerical influence and woman suffrage, 487–498
Clifford (Dr.) on 'Educational Righteousness,' a reply to, 169–174
Cobbett, William, and Queen Caroline: an Unpublished Correspondence, 296–313
Colley (Sir George), 315–317
Colonies, The, and the Mother Country, Federal Council, 773–788
'Compulsory Service': a Minister's Manifesto, 225–235
Compulsory Service: the War Office Veto, 133–149
'Confusion Worse Confounded,' 1157–1162
Congo, Belgian, and rubber-hunting tragedy, 674–691
Constitutional Amendment, The Machinery of, 236–254
Constitutional Revolution, The, 573–590, 993–1005
Copenhagen in the 'Sixties, Recollections of, 45–57
Copts in Spain, The, 515–526
Cornish (F. Warre), The Position of the Laity in the Church of England, 433–447

FAM

Cox (Harold), A Great Democratic Reform, 21–33, 250–251
Criminal Alien, The Problem of the, 217–224
Cross (J. W.), Finance and Defence, 448–459
'Crown Domain,' The Story of the, 674–691

'DECADENT' poets of nineteenth century, French, 527–544
Declaration of London, For and Against the, 402–416
Defence, Finance and, 448–459
Defence, Imperial and Home, The New Policy of, 545–559
Defence of the Empire and compulsory military service, 133–149
Democracy, A Study of, 179–188
Democracy, British, and Indian Government, 189–209
Democratic Reform, A Great, 21–33
Denmark, Royal Family of, 45–57
Denominational schools and Dr. Clifford, 169–174
Dimnet (Abbé Ernest), The Crisis in the Growth of French Royalism, 335–350
Diodorus Siculus, the Hyperboreans, and Stonehenge, 1036–1053
Dirigibles and aeroplanes in warfare, 798–810
Disintegration, Imperial, The Liberal Policy of, 381–401
Divorce, A Woman's View of, 329–334
Downing Street Idyll, A, 255–269
Dramatic censorship and ostracised plays, 460–470
Dunraven (Earl of), The Moral of an Immoral Election, 8–20

EDUCATION, Secular, 741–753
'Educational Righteousness, Towards': a Reply to Dr. Clifford, 169–174
Egypt, The Muddle in, and the Way out, 1022–1035
Egyptians or Copts in Moslem Spain, 515–526
Election, The General, 1–7, 8–20
Eminence and Heredity, 818–832
English characteristics as viewed by an Austrian, 1006–1021
English Elections, Humours of, 666–673
Eucharistic vestments and Prayer Book revision, 881–890
Eurasian and European children in India, Schools for, 891–902

FAMOUS Precedent, A: the Creation of Peers by Queen Anne, 34–44

FEM

Female suffrage and clerical influence, 487–498
Finance Act, The, and land taxation, 1073–1085
Finance and Defence, 448–459
Food supply, Our, in time of war, 402–416
Foster (Hon. George E.), Canadian Autonomy and American Reciprocity: a Canadian View, 961–975
Fox (Charles James) on the British Constitution, 262–263
French and English Art, A chat about, 1086–1103
French 'decadent' poets, 545–559
French Revolution, Lord Acton on the, 847–857
French Royalism, The Crisis in the Growth of, 335–350
Fuller (Sir Bampfylde), A Study of Democracy, 179–188

GENERAL Election, The, and After, 1–7
General Election, The, 8–20
Genius, is it hereditary? 818–832
Gentlemen of the Road, 725–740
George IV. and Queen Caroline, 296–313
George (Mr. Lloyd) and Socialism, 255–269
German enterprise, political and commercial, 82–93
German invalidity pensions, 364–368
Gitanos and gipsies in Spain, 515–526
God's Test by War, 591–606
Gold supply and banking reserves, 448–459
Gomez (Fernando), the Mexican guerilla, and President Santa Anna, 1124–1133
Gordon (General), 318–321
Gordon (Major Sir William Evans), The Stranger within our Gates, 210–216
Greece, Danish Prince as King of, 45–57
Greek, Compulsory, Compulsory Science versus, 499–514
Gwendoline Casson, Misdemeanant, The Case of, 704–713
Gwynn (Stephen), The Writings and Opinions of General Sir William Butler, 314–328

HALDANE (Lord) on 'Compulsory Service,' 754–772, 789–797
Hale (Col. Lonsdale), 'Compulsory Service': a Minister's Manifesto, 225–235

KIN

Hamilton (General Sir Ian) on 'Compulsory Service,' 133–149, 225–235, 754–772, 789–797
Harrison (Mrs. Frederic), A Woman's View of Divorce, 329–334
Heredity, Eminence and, 818–832
Highway robbers of seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, 725–740
Home Rule, The Demand for: a Suggested Solution, 369–380
Home Secretary, The, and Prison Reform, 58–71
Hostels for Women, 858–866
Hurd (Archibald S.), Compulsory Service: the War Office Veto, 133–149; The New Policy of Imperial and Home Defence, 545–559
Hyperboreans, Stonehenge and the, 1036–1053
Hyslop (Theo. B.), Post-Illusionism and Art in the Insane, 270–281

IMMORAL Election, The Moral of an, 8–20
Imperial and Home Defence, The New Policy of, 545–559
Imperial Conference, A Question for the—Why halt ye? 773–788
Imperial Disintegration, The Liberal Policy of, 381–401
India, The Education of the Domiciled Community in, 891–902
Indian Government, British Democracy and, 189–209
Insurance against invalidity and unemployment, 351–368, 614–635, 1104–1123, 1141–1156, 1157–1162
Insurance, National, The Government Scheme of, 1141–1156
International law and food supplies during war, 402–416
Invasion and the Alternative: Lord Haldane's Administration criticised, 754–772
Invasion, Safeguards against, 545–559
Irish farmers and Home Rule, 369–380
Irish peasants, Sir W. Butler's plea for, 322–328
Irving and Stage Lighting, 903–912

JASTROW (Joseph), The Will to believe in the Supernatural, 471–486
Johnston (Sir Harry H.), The Need for an Anglo-German Understanding, 82–93; The Seamy Side of Travel, 714–724

'KING Edward' Bridge, A, 94–107

KNO

Knox (Major-General Sir William G.), Yeoman Hopkins: One Asset in our Armour, 560–572; The Naval and Military Problem set by Lord Haldane, 789–797

LAITY in the Church of England, The Position of the, 433–447
Land Taxes, The Blight of the: a Retrospect and a Prospect, 1073–1085
Land Venture, A, 175–178
Lankester (Sir Ray), Compulsory Science versus Compulsory Greek, 499–514
Lathbury (D. C.), Canon Beeching and the Ornaments Rubric, 881–890; reply to, 1134–1140
Latin Poetry, Our Debt to, as distinguished from Greek, 692–703; Latin Poetry of the Silver Age, 867–880
Lethbridge (Sir Roper), The Liberal Policy of Imperial Disintegration, 381–401; Canadian Autonomy and American Reciprocity: an English View, 976–992
Lilly (W. S.), Some Notes on Chateaubriand, 636–651, 1054–1072
Lisbon in 1866, 835–846
Lodging-houses for respectable women, 858–866
Lords, House of, Reform of the, 993–1005
Lords, The, and Democracy, 187–188
Lords, The Duty of the, 811–817
Lunatic artists and erratic critics, 270–281
Lyttelton (Hon. Mrs. Alfred), 'The Thumbscrew': a Play in one Act, 938–960

MALCOLM (Ian), Humours of English Elections, 666–673
Mallock (W. H.), The Facts at the Back of Unemployment, 1104–1123
Malortie (Baroness de), Senora Santa Anna's Misadventure: a Mexican Reminiscence, 1124–1133
Marlborough (Duchess of), Hostels for Women, 858–866
Marriage failures and dangers of divorce, 329–334
Married Working Woman, The: a Study, 108–122
Marriott (J. A. R.), The Machinery of Constitutional Amendment, 236–254; Why halt ye? A Question for the Imperial Conference, 773–788
Martin (Anna), The Married Working Woman: a Study, 108–122

PAG

Melville (Lewis), William Cobbett and Queen Caroline: an Unpublished Correspondence, 296–313
Mexican guerillas and President Santa Anna, 1124–1133
Meyerfeld (Dr. Max), The Censor—and other Tales, 460–470
Mills (J. Saxon), The Great Sugar Project, 928–937
'Modernism,' The, of St. Thomas Aquinas, 72–81
Mollie Maguires or Ancient Order of Hibernians, 373–376
Montagu (Rear-Admiral Hon. V. A.), For and Against the Declaration of London, 414–416
Moral, The, of an Immoral Election, 8–20
Morawitz (Charles), Sidelights on the National Economy and People of England, 1006–1021
Morel (E. D.), The Story of the 'Crown Domain,' 674–691
Morgan (J. H.), The Constitutional Revolution, 573–590, 993–1005
Morley (Viscount), British Democracy and Indian Government, 189–209

NATIONAL Economy and People of England, Sidelights on the, 1006–1021
National Insurance against Invalidity and Old Age: a Reply to Mr. Carson Roberts, 351–368; a rejoinder, 1141–1156
National Pension Scheme, The Development of our, 614–635
Naval and Military Problem, The, set by Lord Haldane, 789–797
Navy Estimates, The, 607–613
Neville (Ralph), The Muddle in Egypt and the Way out, 1022–1035
Newton-Robinson (Charles), The Blight of the Land Taxes: a Retrospect and a Prospect, 1073–1085

ORLEANS (Duke of) and 'Action Française,' 335–350
Ornaments Rubric, Canon Beeching and the, 881–890; reply to, 1134–1140
Ornaments Rubric, The: a Reply to Mr. Lathbury, 1134–1140
Osborn (E. B.), Carillon Music, 123–132
Ottoman Empire, reforms under new régime, 417–432
Outpost of our Empire, An, 150–159

PAGET (Lady), Recollections of Copenhagen in the 'Sixties, 45–57; Recollections of Portugal in the 'Sixties, 833–846

PAR

Parliament Bill, The, and reformed Second Chamber, 573–590, 993–1005
Parliament Bill, The, and powers of the Peers, 811–817
Parliament Bill, The, and the Election, 1–7
Parliamentary reform, 8–20
Parliamentary sovereignty and revision of Constitutions, 236–254
Parochial councils and rights of the laity, 433–447
Patriotism and the military spirit, 591–606
Pearson (Norman), Gentlemen of the Road, 725–740
Peasant proprietorship, Wiltshire experiment, 175–178
Pedro (Don), King of Portugal, and his Queen, 833–846
Peer-making under Queen Anne, 34–44
Pension scheme, Our National, 614–635
Plunket (Hon. Emmeline), Stonehenge and the Hyperboreans, 1036–1053
Playwrights and the Censorship, 460–470
Police weapons and armed criminals, 217–224
Political sovereignty and reformed Second Chamber, 811–817
Politics, The lighter side of, 666–673
Poor Law reform and vested interests of Guardians, 913–919
Poore (Major) and 'small holdings,' 175–178
Portugal in the 'Sixties, Recollections of, 833–846
Post-Illusionism and Art in the Insane, 270–281
Potter (J. Wilson), For and Against the Declaration of London, 402–413
Prayer Book revision and vestments, 881–890, 1134–1140
Prayer Book, The Revision of the, 282–295
Prison Reform, The Home Secretary and, 58–71
Public school education, Science and Greek in, 499–514; Latin poetry in, 692–703, 867–880

QUEEN Anne's creation of Tory Peers, 34–44

RAILWAY discomforts and tourist agencies, 714–724
Referendum, The, and Constitutional revision, 250–251
Referendum, The, Conservatism, and Democracy, 21–33, 187
Religious education in elementary schools, 169–174

SUG

Religious teaching in schools and Secular Education League, 741–753
Revolution, The Constitutional, 573–590, 993–1005
Revolutionary leaders, French, in eighteenth century, 847–857
Reynolds-Stephens (W.), A Plea for the Nationalisation of our Sculpture, 160–168
Ribblesdale (Lord), The General Election and After, 1–7
Roberts (A. Carson), The Development of our National Pension Scheme, 614–635; reply to, 351–368; The Government Scheme of National Insurance, 1141–1156
Royal Academy and the Salon, Conversations at the, 1086–1103
Ryan (P. F. William), A Famous Precedent: the Creation of Peers by Queen Anne, 34–44

SALON and the Royal Academy, Conversations at the, 1086–1103
Santa Anna's (Senora) Misadventure: a Mexican Reminiscence, 1124–1133
Schuster (Dr. Ernest J.), National Insurance against Invalidity and Old Age: a Reply to Mr. Carson Roberts, 351–368
Science, Compulsory, versus Compulsory Greek, 499–514
Scientific reasoning and super-physical beliefs, 471–486
Sculpture, A Plea for the Nationalisation of our, 160–168
Secular Education, The Policy of, 741–753
Sellers (Edith), Cassandra on 'Votes for Women,' 487–498
Seneca, Lucan, Persius, and Latin and Greek poetry, 867–880
Sichel (Walter), A Downing Street Idyll, 255–269
Silver age of Latin poetry, 867–880
Skipton (Horace Pitt Kennedy), The Education of the Domiciled Community in India, 891–902
Snowden (Mr. Philip) and the remedy for unemployment, 1104–1123
Spain, The Copts in, 515–526
Stage Lighting, Irving and, 903–912
Stewart (Halley), The Policy of Secular Education, 741–753
Stoker (Bram), Irving and Stage Lighting, 903–912
Statham (H. Heathcote), Conversations at the Salon and the Royal Academy, 1086–1103
Stonehenge and the Hyperboreans, 1036–1053
Stranger within our Gates, The, 210–216
Sugar Project, The Great, 928–937

SUP

Supernatural, The Will to believe in the, 471–486
Sweaters and sweated, dramatic story, 938–960
Swinton (Capt. G. S. C.), A 'King Edward' Bridge, 94–107

TERRITORIALS and training, 560–572
Theatre-lighting and Sir H. Irving, 903–912
'Thumbscrew, The': a Play in one Act, 938–960
Trade depression and unemployment, 1104–1123
Travel, The: Seamy Side of, 714–724
Turkey, Young, After Two Years, 417–432
Tyrrell (R.Y.), Our Debt to Latin Poetry as distinguished from Greek, 692–703, 867–880

UNDESIRABLE aliens in England, 217–224
Unemployment, The Facts at the Back of, 1104–1123

VESTED Interest, A; 913–919
'Votes for Women,' Cassandra on, 487–498

TEO

WALLIS (H. M.), The Case of Gwendoline Casson, Misdemeanant, 704–713
War as a test of a nation's soul, 591–606
Warfare, Air-ships and aeroplanes in, 798–810
Watherston (Mrs.), An Outpost of our Empire, 150–159
Welldon (Bishop), The Making of the Authorised Version, 652–665
Whetham (W. C. D. and Mrs.), Eminence and Heredity, 818–832
Whishaw (Bernhard and Ellen), The Copts in Spain, 515–526
Why halt ye? A Question for the Imperial Conference, 773–778
Wilson (Admiral Sir A.) on Invasion, 545–559
Women, Hostels for, 858–866
Women, Votes for, 185–186, 487–498
Workhouse children and Scattered Homes, 704–713
Wyatt (Harold F.), God's Test by War, 591–606

YEOMAN Hopkins: One Asset in our Armour, 560–572
Young Turkey after Two Years, 417–432

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO. LTD., LONDON
COLCHESTER AND ETON